January 18 – Feb 2, Onstage Repertory Theater presents: RED HERRING by Michael Hollinger. Three love stories, a murder mystery, and a nuclear espionage plot converge in this noir comedy about marriage and other explosive devices. It's 1952, and Boston detective Maggie Pelletier has to find out who dumped the dead guy in the Harbor – or else lose out on a honeymoon in Havana. Directed by Randy Anger. Thurs 7:00 PM, Fri/Sat 8:00 PM, Sundays 2:30 PM. Tickets www.brownpapertickets.com/campbell

January 30, workshop reading of WORKFORCE, a new musical by Jim Maher and Alan Beliakoff. Louise and Zach were college sweethearts. However, Louise breaks off their romance to accept a job in New York. Years later they are reunited amid a corporate world of fraud and corruption. As a bonus, you get to provide the playwrights Jim and Alan feedback on this original work! Wednesday, 7:30 PM. Free.

Feb 8-March 3, Women of Words present: WHITE GUY ON A BUS by Bruce Graham. Why does a wealthy white guy from the suburbs take a bus through a poor black neighborhood out to the prison and back every Saturday without getting off at the end of the line, week after week, befriending a single black mom. This thoughtful work rhetorically “throws political correctness under the bus” in favor of a candid look at race relations in modern society. Fri/Sat at 8:00 PM, Sun at 2:30 PM. Tickets www.womenofwords.brownpapertickets.com

February 9, Contra Costa County Arts and Culture Commission presents: POETRY OUT LOUD COMPETITION COUNTY FINALS. Exciting competition to determine finalists from Contra Costa high schools in State competition in poetry reading. An inspirational demonstration of how modern youth in our local high schools have wonderful passion for fine arts, among them poetry. Each contestant reads two works of his or her choosing, which are judged by a distinguished panel of educators. This show last year was a sellout! Presentations begin Saturday at 11:00 AM, award presentations conclude at 2:00 PM.

February 9, Contra Costa County Historical Society's "Author in the Archives" presents prolific book author Rich Unterberger on "Rock Music of the 60s and 70s." Saturday, 3:00 PM. $10

February 9, Martinez Wine & Chocolate Crawl visits the Campbell, 1:30 PM to 4:30 PM. Come for the fun!

March 8-24, Onstage Theatre presents: I AM MY OWN WIFE. Based on a true story, the fascinating tale of Charlotte von Mahlsdorf, a real-life German transvestite who managed to survive both the Nazi onslaught and the repressive East German Communist regime. A vivid portrait of a unique person whose ability to endure has been turned into a highly theatrical journey. The rave reviews included "of his writing provokes us to think, it teaches us a history we never knew we had, and without forgiveness and sentiment unravels the story of one life." Starring Randall Nott, directed by Helen Means.

March 30, Improv Comedy from Funny Bone Productions. The audience sets the scene and the subject, and the troupe does an instant comic creation on the fly. $10. 7:30 PM.

April 11-28, Plotline Theater presents: BELL BOOK AND CANDLE by John Van Druten. Gillian Holroyd is a modern witch who casts a spell over an unattached publisher who falls head over heels in love with her. But can witches fall in love? Directed by Randy Anger.

May 3, Improv Comedy holds the evening once again! The Funny Bone co-conspirators deliver spontaneity heavily layered with make-it-up-as-you-go hilarity. $10. 7:30 PM.

May 9-26, Plotline Theater presents: A MURDER IS ANNOUNCED by Agatha Christie and Leslie Darbon. A classic murder mystery featuring the famous Miss Marple. Plot twists, multiple suspects, guaranteed to keep everyone on the edge of their seats. Directed by Matt Davis.

May 18, Contra Costa County Historical Society "Author in the Archives" presents Dan Smith with the History of San Pablo California. 2:00 PM.

May 18, Contra Costa County Historical Society's "Author in the Archives" presents Dan Smith on "History of San Pablo, California." 2:00 PM. Details TBD.

June 7-23, Onstage Repertory Theater presents: OVER THE RIVER AND THROUGH THE WOODS by Joe DiPietro. Nick is single. His parents moved south to Florida. But he sees both sets of grandparents every Sunday, a placid event until he is been offered a new job in Seattle. A hilarious comedy directed by Helen Means.
